The first week was filled with warmth, excitement, and a sense of belonging as students reunited with their friends and teachers. Classrooms buzzed with energy, curiosity, and the eagerness to learn. The reopening marked not just the beginning of a new term, but also a fresh opportunity for growth, discovery, and achievement.

Let us embrace each day with enthusiasm and strive together to make this academic year a remarkable and successful one. ☀️📚🌟

* 🌱 GUIDING MINDS, SHAPING HEARTS: ORIENTATION SESSION FOR SENIOR STUDENTS* 🌱 !!!

An insightful orientation session was conducted for students of Grades X and XII by Rev.Fr Bennett, focusing on guiding them to let go of negative influences in teen age and nurture positive thoughts while standing strong in their values. The session gently addressed the emotional changes students experience during this crucial stage of life, helping them understand their feelings, manage stress, and build self-confidence. With simple yet meaningful words, he encouraged students to choose what is right over what is easy, reminding them that their thoughts shape their future. The interaction created a calm and reflective atmosphere, leaving a deep impact on the students by inspiring clarity, emotional strength, and a renewed sense of purpose as they move forward in their academic and personal journey.

🌍🌍🌍 " ECHOES OF THE EARTH IVANIANS ANSWER NATURE CALL " 🌍 🌍 🌍

Like young saplings reaching towards the sunlight, the students of Mar Ivanios CBSE School, Kuzhithurai, came together on World Environment Day to celebrate and reaffirm their bond with Mother Earth. The campus blossomed with messages of hope, responsibility, and environmental awareness as students became the voice of a planet seeking care and protection.

The occasion was enriched by the presence of Dr. Amsi Kalaivanan, CEO and PRO of various NGOs engaged in environmental and plantation initiatives. Through his inspiring words, he reminded students that the Earth is not merely a place we inhabit, but a living legacy entrusted to our care. His message ignited a spark of responsibility in every young heart present.

Their enthusiasm painted a picture of hope—a future where every tree planted, every resource conserved, and every mindful action contributes to a healthier planet.

The celebration was more than an event; it was a promise. A promise that the Ivanians will continue to nurture the Earth with the same care and love with which it nurtures us. As voices united for a greener tomorrow, the message rang clear: there is no greater inheritance than a healthy planet and no greater responsibility than protecting it.
